THE FIFTY-FIFTH

Annual Commencement at Bethany College Yesterday.

QUITE A REVIVAL OF INTEREST

In the Grand Old College Founded by Alexander Campbell is Shown by the Alumni, who were Present in Large Numbers, an Endowment Fund of $200,000 is Being Worked For—Commencement Programme was a Good One.

The fifty-fifth annual commencement of Bethany college took place yesterday under most auspicious circumstances. Renewed interest in the institution, and delightful weather brought out the largest crowd for years. The accommodations of the town were taxed to their utmost, and many people ate their dinners beneath the shady trees on the campus.

There were twenty-seven graduates, of whom three are post-graduates, that took their places on the rostrum promptly at 10 o'clock. After music by the orchestra stationed in the gallery, the exercises were opened by prayer by Chancellor McKeever. Another musical selection followed, when Miss Gertrude Frew, of Wheeling, stepped forth and delivered the salutatory address. Her words of greeting to all were delivered in a smooth and graceful manner. She is a graduate in music, and also takes the degree of Bachelor of Literature.

Mr. J. W. Stewart, of West Virginia, had an oration in Greek. While it was unintelligible to a great many, his delivery was highly commendable. Here the orchestra enlivened the proceedings with more music. At its close, J. A. Canby, also of West Virginia, in an instructive oration, discussed "The Evolution of Sentiment." He told how the thought of the present age was far superior to that of bygone ages.

Mr. E. E. Crawford, from Prince Edward Island, Canada, had for his subject, "I Want to Know." He told of man's yearning for knowledge and immortality. He had many original phases to his subject.

Mrs. J. M. Ridge, of Kansas City, Mo., secured the audience by singing. Her voice was a sweet contralto voice, sympathetic to a great degree. She is a warm friend of Bethany.

"Personality" was the theme discussed by Mr. C. A. Groves, of Kentucky. His main idea was that we should develop our individualities along certain lines. His reference to Napoleon was peculiarly appropriate.

Bethany College is a grand and inspiring theme to every one present, was eloquently delivered by Mr. R. H. Merriam, of St. Louis. He is considered the best orator in the college. His words to the memory of Alexander Campbell caused the audience to enthusiastic cheers. Mr. Merriam is a natural orator.

Another well sung selection by Mrs. Ridge formed the prelude to the oration, "The Average Man," by Mr. J. F. Stewart, of Indiana. His remarks were witty and pointed, and his oration a departure from the average graduating oration. When he said that the average politician did not know the difference between peroration and legislation, his remarks produced great applause.

The valedictory was given by Mr. J. R. Gamber, of Illinois. He touchedly said of the regret at leaving the college, the faculty and his classmates.

The degrees were conferred on the following:

Master of arts (honorary)—Mrs. J. M. Ridge, Kansas City, Mo.; A. L. Chapman, Mr. Healthy, Ohio; E. E. Curry, Randolph, Ohio; G. S. Warnock, Taylorstown, Pa.; Miss Beatrice M. Kelly, Steubenville, Ohio; W. K. Curtis, Maryland, Texas.

Doctor of Literature—Jeremiah D. Gray, Trenton, N. J.

Doctor of laws—J. W. McGarvey, Lexington, Ky.; S. M. Jefferson, Bethesda, W. Va.; L. L. Carpenter, Wabash, Ind., and President McDiarmid.

The diplomas were presented by President McDiarmid. Remarks were made by H. K. Pendleton, of Exeter, New Hampshire, and Chancellor McKeever. Benediction was then pronounced and the vast audience went out with fond hopes of better things for Bethany. This year's class is a splendid one, and much to be expected from them in coming years. One thing is certainly true, that if all the alumni prove as true to their alma mater, as this year's class promises to be, the grand old institution founded by Alexander Campbell will soon be endowed so as to lead far in advance of its already high rank.

Commencement Notes.

President McDiarmid resigns, to take the chair of theology in Hiram college, Ohio.

Professor Schenckel has returned from Johns Hopkins University, to resume teaching mathematics at Bethany.

Professor S. M. Jefferson resigns from chair of theology. He is succeeded by Professor Hagerman, of Kentucky university.

The alumni met yesterday afternoon and the Neophobian society gave their performance last night. The American Glee Club sang on Tuesday night.

Mr. H. K. Pendleton, of Florida, was lecturing at Bethany with Alexander Campbell, in 1876. He is now in Florida, but he never misses a commencement.

The musical department under Professor Fenchinger, has produced pupils of advancement in Misses Frew,

HE GOT $700

But Did Not Keep It Long—During Robbery in Broad Daylight—Fire Department Called Out.

Last evening shortly before 6 o'clock, in broad daylight, before "Old Sol" had retired for the half day, a most daring robbery occurred in the East End. A fairly well dressed young man entered the home of Paul Winstripper, at 1235 McCulloch street, and after intimidating Mrs. Winstripper with a poker, broke open a bureau and took valuables worth $700. He then left, going out at the rear. Mrs. Winstripper found her voice and soon had the neighbors thoroughly aroused. A neighbor thought there was a fire and turned in an alarm at the Central glass works that brought out the department. Officer Michaels was soon on the scene and went after the thief whom he soon found hidden behind a pile of lumber in the back yard of a neighbor's house. When taken to police headquarters he was searched. A certificate of deposit on the German bank for $500, $5 in paper money and $10 in souvenir coins were found on his person, all of which he had taken from the Winstripper house. He will be up in Justice Phillips' court this morning charged with grand larceny, and be sure to get a stiff dose of penitentiary medicine. The young man refused to give any name and said he came from Chicago.

GROCERS' DAY

Was Celebrated at Mozart Park Yesterday—The Amusement Programme.

Grocer's Day was observed yesterday by a picnic, and it was attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled at either of the parks. The Opera House band and the committee made a tour on an electric car at 1 o'clock and upon reaching the park the amusements began. The day was given up to dancing and bowling principally, and a number of contests added attraction to the afternoon's and evening's exercises, including balloon ascensions, wheelbarrow races, potato races, egg races and tug-of-war. In the latter the drummers of the east side of Main street defeated those of the west side, after a spirited contest. At midnight the dancing was concluded and the victors started for their homes, well satisfied with the day's amusements.

THE CANTON TRIP.

Interest at Fever Heat and a Crowd is Going.

UNCERTAINTY ABOUT THE RATE

Is Keeping the Advance Sale of Tickets Down, but it is Not Thought the Other Roads will Make a Cut—Bina-Standard Mill Workers will Join the Wheeling Crowd—Some of the West Virginia Convention Delegation will be There.

The number of people from Wheeling and the Kan Handle who will go to Canton to-morrow to personally congratulate the next President of the United States upon his nomination by the Republican convention, bids fair to be fully as large as has been anticipated. If Wheeling's crowd numbers 1,500 men it will not at all be surprising.

The advance sale of tickets for the Ohio County Republican Club's excursion on the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling road, has not been as large as was expected on account of the idea that has become somewhat general that the two other roads that enter Canton will announce a rate lower than $1.50. However, it is said there will be no cut under the $1.50 rate by the other roads. If there is such a cut it is said the Cleveland, Lorain & Cleveland road will meet it. There was a wild rumor on the streets last night that the Wheeling & Erie would announce a rate of 75 cents for the round trip.

The Aetna-Standard mill workers are going to join with Wheeling and go to Canton in force to-morrow. It is estimated there will be 300 to 400 of the Aetna mill men on the trip. The La Belle people will number at least 400, and the Ohio County Club will take out about 800.

Tickets for the Ohio County Club's train can be had at the Intelligence counting rooms, city receiver's office in the city building, from the members of the club committee, and at the C. L. & W. railroad's freight office. The train will leave Wheeling promptly at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

HOW IT WAS RECEIVED.

McKinley's Nomination Received with the Wildest Enthusiasm—Speeches and Parade Last Evening.

Throughout the day the bulletins of the proceedings at the St. Louis convention, posted early and often at the Intelligence office, were scanned by hundreds of people. The crowd was most numerous last evening at 6 o'clock when the news of the ballot for President was being received. When the roll call had reached Missouri, it was broken into by the telegram that read:

"McKinley is nominated—by Ohio's vote."

This was at once displayed and the crowd went wild in its enthusiasm. After the vote by states was not a matter of such great interest. The crowd stayed through the evening, after Hobart had been nominated, and became larger as the evening advanced.

Speeches were made by a number of gentlemen, including Colonel George B. Caldwell, Thomas O'Brien, Jr., and others. Before midnight a band was secured and the enthusiastic crowd surrounded a number of gentlemen, including Mr. Atkinson, Congressman B. B. Dovenner, who had just arrived in town, Mr. John Frew, Senator Whitaker, Joseph Spidel. During the serenade speeches were made by Hon. G. W. Atkinson, H. C. Richards, George B. Caldwell, Congressman Dovenner and others. Mr. Dovenner had retired for the night, but he gallantly responded to the calls for him to appear. The speeches were received with enthusiasm, and every reference to McKinley's name was enthusiastically applauded.
